

Chelsea Grossi CPHR

Chelsea Grossi, our current CPHR Edmonton committee chair has over 8 years diverse experience within HR. She has led HR teams, supported complex employee and labour relations issues, built out employee value propositions and onboarding programs. Chelsea's passion lies in finding proactive solutions and support to her client group to mitigate escalation. She loves coaching, guiding and advising new leaders and working to build confidence in their new role. Chelsea has led compensation and performance cycles, and actively works to take a full scope approach to talent management from hire to retire with workforce and succession planning. When not working she loves spending time outside with her family including their 8 month old puppy, Orzo.
