

Sherilyn Trompetter and Sky McLaughlin are the co-founders of MT Consulting Group, a boutique diversity and inclusion consulting agency based in Edmonton, Canada. We equip organizations and individuals with the strategies, training, and toolkits they need to not only diversify their talent pipeline but to nurture an inclusive and equitable workplace culture where every single employee feels that they belong. With over 40 years of experience, we bring our experience working in academia, non-profits, government and multinational organizations to our work.